2. Wear clean, neatly ironed school uniform
3. Set examples of disciplined students who are respectful towards all teachers and follow school rules.
4. Carry the student handbook to school every day. We encourage communication between parent and teachers/Principal through handbook. No verbal requests will be entertained. Parents are requested to check the ward's class work and home work details and acknowledge the remarks if any, written by the teacher concerned.
5. Bring only the books in the order of the day. They should not carry any electronic gadgets without the permission of the teacher / Principal.
6. Attend all coaching / special classes / Special assemblies organized by the school.
7. Bring all the requirements for the day (textbooks, notebooks, lunch bag etc) with them. School will not be responsible to send it to the class if it is brought by the parent later.
8. Students who are irregular in completing the class work or homework will be required to stay back in school and complete the work after school hours. Students to take second trip in such cases on those days.
9. Five Marks of Internal Assessment are from notebook completed and checked, for each subject.
10. The textbooks have to be neatly covered, labeled and maintained as directed by the teachers

11. The School follows CBSE Board pattern. Each class work / homework activity of the class will have weight-age and it is very important for the student to consider each home as well as class assignments sincerely. Concerned teachers will share the complete guidelines on the evaluation system with the students.
12. When the students remain absent for a day or more they are supposed to submit a leave letter and also a note in the handbook.
